Health and Devotion

Trust in Scripture. Trust in God. (Part 1)

By Kim Johnson, author of CREATION Health Life Guide Series Discovery

One afternoon, a driver on the New Jersey Turnpike was shocked at what he saw happen up ahead. While a Lincoln Town Car was traveling at full speed, the rear door opened and a passenger shoved a collie on to the pavement.

The dog hit the concrete, rolled over several times, then landed in a ditch. Bleeding profusely, the collie got up and limped after the car and owner who had abandoned him so cruelly. Brennan Manning writes, "The dog's relentless faithfulness was not conditioned or diminished by the abuse and callous disregard of his master." The loyalty of the collie in this heartbreaking story captures the essence of God's attitude toward humanity.

The Scriptures tell us that Jesus died for us, "while we were still sinners". Even though mankind had rejected him, Christ's only thought was to continue to relentlessly pursue us by going to a cross on our behalf. Because the savior is so astonishingly and profoundly faithful to us, he is eminently worthy of our trust. In order to respond appropriately, we need to know what kind of trust God expects from us.

Jesus once asked, "When the Son of Man comes, will He really find faith on the earth?" He is not simply referring to the quantity of faith, but, more importantly, its quality. What sort of faith is the Son of God looking for?

In this lesson we will explore the answer to that vital question by looking at various characteristics of biblical faith. We are treating the words "faith" and "trust" as essentially synonymous.

Devotional Thought: Be of Good Cheer

This devotional is brought to you by Pacific Press® Publishing Association

It is not the will of God that His people should be weighed down with care. But our Lord does not deceive us. He does not say to us, "Do not fear; there are no dangers in your path." He knows there are trials and dangers, and He deals with us plainly. He does not propose to take His people out of a world of sin and evil, but He points them to a never-failing refuge. His prayer for His disciples was, "I pray not that Thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that Thou shouldest keep them from the evil." "In the world," He says, "ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." John 17:15; 16:33.

Orange Cove Core Values: To Be a Mature Disciple...

1. Refresh: Be "Refreshed" by the baptism of the Holy Spirit moment by moment. "For John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized by the Holy Spirit not many days from now." Acts 1:5. Jesus dwells in the hearts of His Children through His Spirit. By asking Him, after receiving forgiveness, the Holy Spirit comes and lives in us—His holy temples.

2. Abide: Jesus said, "I am the Vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me, you can do nothing." John 15:5. It is through the Word that Christ abides in His followers. Spending time alone with God before the day starts in Bible study, prayer and meditation gives Divine power and strength through the Spirit to those who do it.

3. Share: The example of the early Christian Church in Acts 2 demonstrates how God intended for believers to meet together in church (large groups) and homes (small groups). Meeting together & sharing, ingrains the truth of God's Word and the teachings of Jesus in the believers' lives.

4. Give: God invites all His disciples to give of their time and their means to further His Kingdom. "Do not lay up for yourselves treasure on earth . . . lay up for yourselves treasure in heaven." Matt 6:19. Giving allows a disciple to participate in God's Holy Nature and neutralize the selfish tendencies within his or her sinful nature.

5. Mentor: The great controversy between good and evil is fierce and complex. God ordained believers to encourage, support and care for one another in close, "family-like," relationships. Every disciple should be mentored by a more mature, experienced disciple and should, in turn, mentor a less experienced younger disciple than themselves. This process solidifies the experience of each disciple.

Reflects the core values that Seventh-day Adventist are committed to:

- ⇒ The Open Bible: forms the base of the design and represents the Biblical foundation of our beliefs. It is portrayed in a fully opened position suggesting full acceptance of God's word as one reads, studies, and puts into practice.
- ⇒ The Cross: central to the Biblical message is the Cross which represents the gospel of salvation and is positioned in the center of the design to emphasize Christ's sacrifice, which is the central theme of our faith.
- ⇒ The Flame: the shape formed by three lines encircling an implied sphere. The lines represent the three angels of Revelation 14 circling the globe and our commission to take the gospel to the entire world. The overall shape forms a flame symbolic of the Holy Spirit, the messenger of Truth. The flame suggests a continued upward momentum symbolizing the resurrection and ascension to heaven at Christ's second coming, the ultimate focus of our faith.
