Health and Devotion

Trust in Scripture. Trust in God. (Part 2)

By Kim Johnson, author of CREATION Health Life Guide Series Discovery

Trust in a Person

God certainly wants us to trust in Scripture and the information it contains. But more than that, we are invited to put our trust in the author of that information, the Son of God. The apostle Paul wrote, "God puts people right through their faith in Jesus Christ". It takes a powerful person whose heart beats with infinite love to provide us with the new life we need for daily living and the hope we need for the future. The carpenter from Nazareth, the flesh and blood human who is also fully divine, is just that kind of person. It is in his character, his caring, his ability, that we place our confidence and trust. Salvation is personal. It is a relationship.

Trust is a Gift

The kind of trust that Christ is looking for cannot be self-generated. Our sinful, insecure hearts are not capable of producing it. We cannot grit our teeth and make ourselves trust. Like everything else in the spiritual life, it has to be a gift from our redeemer. Paul knew from experience that he could not have created his own trust in God from within himself. It had to be "authored" from the outside, from a divine source. We can nurture trust, but only God can place it within us to begin with. We can grow God's gift and deepen it through Bible study, prayer, and exercising faith, but we cannot originate it.

Devotional Thought: The Victory is Certain

This devotional is brought to you by Pacific Press® Publishing Association

Satan may have been defeated at Calvary, but the danger is not over yet. Jesus was clear that His followers would not have an easy time, but instead of focusing on the challenges, He focused on the victory that He had already won. Reflecting this guarantee, John assured the last-day church that their victory was certain through the blood of the Lamb.

Beyond this, Jesus assured His followers, "I am with you always" and "I will never leave you nor forsake you" (Matthew 28:20, Hebrews 13:5). The heroes of faith listed in Hebrews 11 form a great cloud of witnesses and their experiences witness to us of a God who is faithful, personally upholding us in whatever struggles we face, and His victory is ours when we keep our eyes on Him.

Orange Cove Core Values: To Be a Mature Disciple...

1. Refresh: Be "Refreshed" by the baptism of the Holy Spirit moment by moment. "For John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized by the Holy Spirit not many days from now." Acts 1:5. Jesus dwells in the hearts of His Children through His Spirit. By asking Him, after receiving forgiveness, the Holy Spirit comes and lives in us—His holy temples.

2. Abide: Jesus said, "I am the Vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me, you can do nothing." John 15:5. It is through the Word that Christ abides in His followers. Spending time alone with God before the day starts in Bible study, prayer and meditation gives Divine power and strength through the Spirit to those who do it.

3. Share: The example of the early Christian Church in Acts 2 demonstrates how God intended for believers to meet together in church (large groups) and homes (small groups). Meeting together & sharing, ingrains the truth of God's Word and the teachings of Jesus in the believers' lives.

4. Give: God invites all His disciples to give of their time and their means to further His Kingdom. "Do not lay up for yourselves treasure on earth . . . lay up for yourselves treasure in heaven." Matt 6:19. Giving allows a disciple to participate in God's Holy Nature and neutralize the selfish tendencies within his or her sinful nature.

5. Mentor: The great controversy between good and evil is fierce and complex. God ordained believers to encourage, support and care for one another in close, "family-like," relationships. Every disciple should be mentored by a more mature, experienced disciple and should, in turn, mentor a less experienced younger disciple than themselves. This process solidifies the experience of each disciple.

Orange Cove SDA Church

Pastor:
André Van Heerden

January 16, 2016

Reflects the core values that Seventh-day Adventist are committed to:

- ⇒ The Open Bible: forms the base of the design and represents the Biblical foundation of our beliefs. It is portrayed in a fully opened position suggesting full acceptance of God's word as one reads, studies, and puts into practice.
- ⇒ The Cross: central to the Biblical message is the Cross which represents the gospel of salvation and is positioned in the center of the design to emphasize Christ's sacrifice, which is the central theme of our faith.
- ⇒ The Flame: the shape formed by three lines encircling an implied sphere. The lines represent the three angels of Revelation 14 circling the globe and our commission to take the gospel to the entire world. The overall shape forms a flame symbolic of the Holy Spirit, the messenger of Truth. The flame suggests a continued upward momentum symbolizing the resurrection and ascension to heaven at Christ's second coming, the ultimate focus of our faith.
