Health and Devotion

The Power of Choice

A loving God made us with the power of choice. Our wills, the governing power deep within our nature that enables us to choose the way we think, the physical habits we develop, and the spiritual decisions we make, are a powerful force in lifestyle transformation. Our health is not simply a matter of chance, it has a great deal to do with our daily decisions.

When we choose to make positive choices, the Holy Spirit comes to our aid to enable us to put those decisions into practice. All of heaven's power is available to us. Your will may be weakened because of poor choices, but it is never too late to begin to make healthy ones. Change always begins with choice. We have the freedom to take responsibility for our own health and happiness.

FROM Health and Wellness by Mark A. Finley & Peter N. Landless, p. 13.

Devotional Thought: Blinded by Selfishness

This devotional is brought to you by Pacific Press® Publishing Association

We need focused, wholehearted devotion to God. If it is our intention to understand the truth of God and follow it, then we will be given divine light to help our search. Pure holiness begins when we are no longer satisfied with a life of compromise with sin and half-hearted devotion to God.

But when our eyes are blinded by selfishness, only darkness remains. If we don't choose to give ourselves completely to God, then we are in darkness. When we hold back in any area, we leave open a door for Satan to enter and entice us with temptation...Our heavenly Father pursues us with warnings of danger and promises of mercy as long as we will listen.

Orange Cove Core Values: To Be a Mature Disciple...

1. Refresh: Be "Refreshed" by the baptism of the Holy Spirit moment by moment. "For John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized by the Holy Spirit not many days from now." Acts 1:5. Jesus dwells in the hearts of His Children through His Spirit. By asking Him, after receiving forgiveness, the Holy Spirit comes and lives in us—His holy temples.

2. Abide: Jesus said, "I am the Vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me, you can do nothing." John 15:5. It is through the Word that Christ abides in His followers. Spending time alone with God before the day starts in Bible study, prayer and meditation gives Divine power and strength through the Spirit to those who do it.

3. Share: The example of the early Christian Church in Acts 2 demonstrates how God intended for believers to meet together in church (large groups) and homes (small groups). Meeting together & sharing, ingrains the truth of God's Word and the teachings of Jesus in the believers' lives.

4. Give: God invites all His disciples to give of their time and their means to further His Kingdom. "Do not lay up for yourselves treasure on earth . . . lay up for yourselves treasure in heaven." Matt 6:19. Giving allows a disciple to participate in God's Holy Nature and neutralize the selfish tendencies within his or her sinful nature.

5. Mentor: The great controversy between good and evil is fierce and complex. God ordained believers to encourage, support and care for one another in close, "family-like," relationships. Every disciple should be mentored by a more mature, experienced disciple and should, in turn, mentor a less experienced younger disciple than themselves. This process solidifies the experience of each disciple.

Reflects the core values that Seventh-day Adventist are committed to:

- ⇒ The Open Bible: forms the base of the design and represents the Biblical foundation of our beliefs. It is portrayed in a fully opened position suggesting full acceptance of God's word as one reads, studies, and puts into practice.
- ⇒ The Cross: central to the Biblical message is the Cross which represents the gospel of salvation and is positioned in the center of the design to emphasize Christ's sacrifice, which is the central theme of our faith.
- ⇒ The Flame: the shape formed by three lines encircling an implied sphere. The lines represent the three angels of Revelation 14 circling the globe and our commission to take the gospel to the entire world. The overall shape forms a flame symbolic of the Holy Spirit, the messenger of Truth. The flame suggests a continued upward momentum symbolizing the resurrection and ascension to heaven at Christ's second coming, the ultimate focus of our faith.
