Donations to the Church: We would like to say thank you for always thinking of the church, the members and the community around us. Your donations have gone to bless many people. We are asking that you please not donate unwanted items from your home to the church unless the church has made a request of such items. When there is a need, we will send out a request for the needed items via OneCall, email, bulletin and announcements making known our request.

If you have items you would like to donate from your home please contact Good Will, Salvation Army or Veterans of America. The church does not have room to store donated items nor the manpower to sort thru and distribute such donation. However, we are always accepting monetary donations which can be given anytime. If you have an items that you feel would be of value to the church please see the Pastor or Head Elder to discuss donating such item to the church. Thank you for helping to keep our church clean, organized and free from clutter.

Health and Devotion

SOCIAL NETWORKING:
Face to Face vs. Online

In this digital age of online social networking, face-to-face interactions are less and less commonplace. However, there are plenty of benefits to networking in person that cannot be replaced by a computer screen.

- Show off your personality. Meeting someone in person allows you to show off your interests and social skills in the most authentic way.
- Get away from the computer. In-person events get you out of the house and allow you to maintain social skills. The more time you spend in front of the screen, the weaker your communication skills and confidence become. Getting off of the computer also keeps you active! So, instead of sending an e-mail, pick up the phone or go to that event.
- Avoid arguments and misunderstandings. Conversations online are often left open for interpretation due to a lack of body tone and body language.

Although we live in the digital age, it is important that our communication skills do not go out of practice. Maintain relationships with clients, friends, and family by making some face time!

Have a face-to-face conversation to:

- ✓ Learn more about a person.
- ✓ Form closer bonds.
- ✓ Allow conversations to take on a life of their own.

Devotional Thought: Love

This devotional is brought to you by Pacific Press® Publishing Association

God's love differs from our love in that He loves infinitely, indiscriminately, unconditionally, and unselfishly. The Lord does not begin to love on the premise that there must be a response if He is going to continue loving. He does not operate on the basis that He will love some of His creatures more than others, simply because some happen to be more lovable. Neither is His love subject to any sudden mood changes. Long ago the Lord said to Israel: "I have loved you, my people, with an everlasting love. With unfailing love I have drawn you to myself" (Jer. 31:3).

That's pretty strong language. And reassuring! God loves in ways that we find impossible to understand. It is not a negotiated love. It is a simple, yet powerful truth: God is love!

Orange Cove Core Values: To Be a Mature Disciple...

1. Refresh: Be "Refreshed" by the baptism of the Holy Spirit moment by moment. "For John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized by the Holy Spirit not many days from now." Acts 1:5. Jesus dwells in the hearts of His Children through His Spirit. By asking Him, after receiving forgiveness, the Holy Spirit comes and lives in us—His holy temples.

2. Abide: Jesus said, "I am the Vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me, you can do nothing." John 15:5. It is through the Word that Christ abides in His followers. Spending time alone with God before the day starts in Bible study, prayer and meditation gives Divine power and strength through the Spirit to those who do it.

3. Share: The example of the early Christian Church in Acts 2 demonstrates how God intended for believers to meet together in church (large groups) and homes (small groups). Meeting together & sharing, ingrains the truth of God's Word and the teachings of Jesus in the believers' lives.

4. Give: God invites all His disciples to give of their time and their means to further His Kingdom. "Do not lay up for yourselves treasure on earth . . . lay up for yourselves treasure in heaven." Matt 6:19. Giving allows a disciple to participate in God's Holy Nature and neutralize the selfish tendencies within his or her sinful nature.

5. Mentor: The great controversy between good and evil is fierce and complex. God ordained believers to encourage, support and care for one another in close, "family-like," relationships. Every disciple should be mentored by a more mature, experienced disciple and should, in turn, mentor a less experienced younger disciple than themselves. This process solidifies the experience of each disciple.

Reflects the core values that Seventh-day Adventist are committed to:

- ⇒ The Open Bible: forms the base of the design and represents the Biblical foundation of our beliefs. It is portrayed in a fully opened position suggesting full acceptance of God's word as one reads, studies, and puts into practice.
- ⇒ The Cross: central to the Biblical message is the Cross which represents the gospel of salvation and is positioned in the center of the design to emphasize Christ's sacrifice, which is the central theme of our faith.
- ⇒ The Flame: the shape formed by three lines encircling an implied sphere. The lines represent the three angels of Revelation 14 circling the globe and our commission to take the gospel to the entire world. The overall shape forms a flame symbolic if the Holy Spirit, the messenger of Truth. The flame suggests a continued upward momentum symbolizing the resurrection and ascension to heaven at Christ's second coming, the ultimate focus of our faith.
