A New Kind of Leadership Training:

Are you an adult who works with kids/teens ... or know someone who does ... keep reading! Have you ever thought that your church could lead and love kids/teens better? Have you ever wished you could be more intentional to reach kids/families in your church and community? Have you ever felt that there must be a way to improve how we minister to our kids/families? Then you will want to check out a training coming to local churches in 2019 at eight different locations across the Florida Conference. Go to the website - www.floridconference.com/NKL- to learn more about "A New Kind of Leader" training happening February-April around our conference. Start praying about who you will attend with and who are the leaders that could partner with you to impact kids/teens lives forever! Then register as a team!

Devotional Thought: The Gospel in Revelation

This devotional is brought to you by Pacific Press® Publishing Association.

The book of Revelation is a gospel as much as the four Gospels are. Like the Gospels, Revelation talks about the same Jesus. But they focus on different aspects of His roles and existence. The Gospels portray Jesus as the preexistent Son of God who entered into human experience to save fallen human beings and who, after His death on the cross and subsequent resurrection, ascended to heaven. What is He now doing in heaven? Revelation unveils the answer to this question. The book reveals that after His ascension to heaven, Jesus was seated on the heavenly throne, ruling over the entire universe.

Without Revelation, our knowledge of Christ's ministry in heaven on behalf of His people would be vague. Revelation conveys the substance of the gospel as "the good news" and emphatically points to the glorified Christ as the One who, by virtue of His own death, conquered death and the grave. He will never forsake His people and will always be with them until He comes the second time to take them home.

Orange Cove Core Values: To Be a Mature Disciple...

- Refresh: Be "Refreshed" by the baptism of the Holy Spirit moment by moment. "For John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized by the Holy Spirit not many days from now." Acts 1:5. Jesus dwells in the hearts of His Children through His Spirit. By asking Him, after receiving forgiveness, the Holy Spirit comes and lives in us—His holy temples.
- Abide: Jesus said, "I am the Vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me, you can do nothing." John 15:5. It is through the Word that Christ abides in His followers. Spending time alone with God before the day starts in Bible study, prayer and meditation gives Divine power and strength through the Spirit to those who do it.
- Share: The example of the early Christian Church in Acts 2 demonstrates how God intended for believers to meet together in church (large groups) and homes (small groups). Meeting together & sharing, ingrains the truth of God's Word and the teachings of Jesus in the believers' lives.
- Give: God invites all His disciples to give of their time and their means to further His Kingdom. "Do not lay up for yourselves treasure on earth . . . lay up for yourselves treasure in heaven." Matt 6:19. Giving allows a disciple to participate in God's Holy Nature and neutralize the selfish tendencies within his or her sinful nature.
- Mentor: The great controversy between good and evil is fierce and complex. God ordained believers to encourage, support and care for one another in close, "family-like," relationships. Every disciple should be mentored by a more mature, experienced disciple and should, in turn, mentor a less experienced younger disciple than themselves. This process solidifies the experience of each disciple.
