Devotional Thought: Be On Guard

This devotional is brought to you by Pacific Press® Publishing Association

Currently a lot of speculation rages around the concept of a future antichrist. To many people it has become an obsession to figure out exactly who the antichrist is and where he will appear. But if we take John seriously, the whole subject of the antichrist is broader than that. The danger of the antichrist is broader than that. The danger of the antichrist does not just threaten people at one particular time only. Instead, there is a continual danger that we might be deceived and participate in the spirit of the antichrist.

In other words, it is vital what we believe and teach, not necessarily in a mere abstract and theoretical way, but in relationship to our central affirmation that Jesus Christ is our Savior. Many forces and powers in the world may attempt to lure us away from our faith in Jesus Christ. We must be continually on guard. As the book of Revelation shows us, Satan can work through individuals as well as religious institutions and political entities to erase our commitment to Christ. What a blessing it is to remember that the One who is in us is greater than the one who is in the world!

Orange Cove Core Values: To Be a Mature Disciple...

- Refresh: Be "Refreshed" by the baptism of the Holy Spirit moment by moment. "For John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized by the Holy Spirit not many days from now." Acts 1:5. Jesus dwells in the hearts of His Children through His Spirit. By asking Him, after receiving forgiveness, the Holy Spirit comes and lives in us—His holy temples.
- Abide: Jesus said, "I am the Vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me, you can do nothing." John 15:5. It is through the Word that Christ abides in His followers. Spending time alone with God before the day starts in Bible study, prayer and meditation gives Divine power and strength through the Spirit to those who do it.
- Share: The example of the early Christian Church in Acts 2 demonstrates how God intended for believers to meet together in church (large groups) and homes (small groups). Meeting together & sharing, ingrains the truth of God's Word and the teachings of Jesus in the believers' lives.
- Give: God invites all His disciples to give of their time and their means to further His Kingdom. "Do not lay up for yourselves treasure on earth . . . lay up for yourselves treasure in heaven." Matt 6:19. Giving allows a disciple to participate in God's Holy Nature and neutralize the selfish tendencies within his or her sinful nature.
- Mentor: The great controversy between good and evil is fierce and complex. God ordained believers to encourage, support and care for one another in close, "family-like," relationships. Every disciple should be mentored by a more mature, experienced disciple and should, in turn, mentor a less experienced younger disciple than themselves. This process solidifies the experience of each disciple.
