Devotional Thought: A Clean Slate

This devotional is brought to you by Pacific Press® Publishing Association.

Rather than unleash the rage of the mob against this woman and satisfy their bloodlust by slaughtering one of God's children, Jesus turned the attention of these leaders to the adultery committed against God in their own hearts and lives. While they had not been publicly exposed in the same manner as this woman, they recalled their own departures from God's law. Their pride deflated, one by one they admitted the truth to themselves--that before God they were all naked and ashamed, in need of mercy. Jesus had, in His own special way, leveled the field and brought each one in the group to the knowledge of their need for a Savior. . . . What an amazing picture of the incredible love of Jesus! A love that can acknowledge the truth of sin but exercise the right to withhold judgment. Jesus never condoned or encouraged her adultery; in fact, He told her not to do it again. Rather than end her story with her worst act, Jesus gave her a clean slate on which to write a new and improved story for herself. This is a picture of what God wants to share with us--a love that rightly identifies sin and provides the opportunity to walk in a new direction. God's love does not flinch in the face of disappointment; it rallies to our defense and dusts us off so we can have a fresh start. FROM Pursued by Lola Moore Johnston, pp. 13, 14

Orange Cove Core Values: To Be a Mature Disciple...

- Refresh: Be "Refreshed" by the baptism of the Holy Spirit moment by moment. "For John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized by the Holy Spirit not many days from now." Acts 1:5. Jesus dwells in the hearts of His Children through His Spirit. By asking Him, after receiving forgiveness, the Holy Spirit comes and lives in us—His holy temples.
- Abide: Jesus said, "I am the Vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me, you can do nothing." John 15:5. It is through the Word that Christ abides in His followers. Spending time alone with God before the day starts in Bible study, prayer and meditation gives Divine power and strength through the Spirit to those who do it.
- Share: The example of the early Christian Church in Acts 2 demonstrates how God intended for believers to meet together in church (large groups) and homes (small groups). Meeting together & sharing, ingrains the truth of God's Word and the teachings of Jesus in the believers' lives.
- Give: God invites all His disciples to give of their time and their means to further His Kingdom. "Do not lay up for yourselves treasure on earth . . . lay up for yourselves treasure in heaven." Matt 6:19. Giving allows a disciple to participate in God's Holy Nature and neutralize the selfish tendencies within his or her sinful nature.
- Mentor: The great controversy between good and evil is fierce and complex. God ordained believers to encourage, support and care for one another in close, "family-like," relationships. Every disciple should be mentored by a more mature, experienced disciple and should, in turn, mentor a less experienced younger disciple than themselves. This process solidifies the experience of each disciple.
