3 quick tips to improve your health in 2017

1. Nourish to Heal™—Eat your medicine (yes, really!) Have you ever thought of foods as a medicine used to treat and prevent health conditions? Well, you should! According to Dr. Peters, the ideal diet should include superfoods—particularly whole plant foods that capture the energy of the sun and provide the best fuel to power the body. Incorporating 2 cups of fresh fruits and veggies into your meals is a great way to get nourished and feel full longer.
2. Sleep to Rejuvenate™—Get plenty of Z's. It's no surprise that the body rejuvenates itself when sleeping. Try to set up a consistent bedtime in a room that is well-ventilated and dark, aiming for seven to nine hours of sleep. Start your night hydrated and eat dinner early in the evening to avoid going to bed with a full stomach. Getting adequate exercise, water and sunshine during the day without excess intake of caffeine will help you get a fantastic night's rest.
3. Thoughtful Choices™—Mind your...mind. Staying positive and making thoughtful choices are secrets to learning healthy, loving healthy and living healthy. Take some time to focus on positives in your life instead of negatives, always looking for the good in others and all situations. Take a few moments out of your day to think about others and how you can help them also lead a positive life and make thoughtful choices.

Devotional Thought: His Glory

This devotional is brought to you by Pacific Press® Publishing Association

The glory of God is His character, and "the last message of mercy to be given to the world, is a revelation of His character of love. . . . In their own life and character they [the followers of Christ] are to reveal what the grace of God has done for them." The last message to be carried to the world is not a time prophecy or a retreat to the Old Testament ceremonies. The last message for the world is a revelation of Gods character in your life! Your testimony of His presence in your life - how He has changed and transformed you - is the light of the world!

The oil makes the difference. Without it, it is like a gun without bullets, a flashlight without batteries, and the form of godliness without the power. Without the Holy Spirit we are not ready for the wedding and we are not serious about the war.

Orange Cove Core Values: To Be a Mature Disciple...

- Refresh: Be "Refreshed" by the baptism of the Holy Spirit moment by moment. "For John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized by the Holy Spirit not many days from now." Acts 1:5. Jesus dwells in the hearts of His Children through His Spirit. By asking Him, after receiving forgiveness, the Holy Spirit comes and lives in us—His holy temples.
- Abide: Jesus said, "I am the Vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me, you can do nothing." John 15:5. It is through the Word that Christ abides in His followers. Spending time alone with God before the day starts in Bible study, prayer and meditation gives Divine power and strength through the Spirit to those who do it.
- Share: The example of the early Christian Church in Acts 2 demonstrates how God intended for believers to meet together in church (large groups) and homes (small groups). Meeting together & sharing, ingrains the truth of God's Word and the teachings of Jesus in the believers' lives.
- Give: God invites all His disciples to give of their time and their means to further His Kingdom. "Do not lay up for yourselves treasure on earth . . . lay up for yourselves treasure in heaven." Matt 6:19. Giving allows a disciple to participate in God's Holy Nature and neutralize the selfish tendencies within his or her sinful nature.
- Mentor: The great controversy between good and evil is fierce and complex. God ordained believers to encourage, support and care for one another in close, "family-like," relationships. Every disciple should be mentored by a more mature, experienced disciple and should, in turn, mentor a less experienced younger disciple than themselves. This process solidifies the experience of each disciple.

- Reflects the core values that Seventh-day Adventist are committed to:
- ⇒ The Open Bible: forms the base of the design and represents the Biblical foundation of our beliefs. It is portrayed in a fully opened position suggesting full acceptance of God's word as one reads, studies, and puts into practice.
 - ⇒ The Cross: central to the Biblical message is the Cross which represents the gospel of salvation and is positioned in the center of the design to emphasize Christ's sacrifice, which is the central theme of our faith.
 - ⇒ The Flame: the shape formed by three lines encircling an implied sphere. The lines represent the three angels of Revelation 14 circling the globe and our commission to take the gospel to the entire world. The overall shape forms a flame symbolic if the Holy Spirit, the messenger of Truth. The flame suggests a continued upward momentum symbolizing the resurrection and ascension to heaven at Christ's second coming, the ultimate focus of our faith.
