Devotional Thought: Listening to God

This devotional is brought to you by Pacific Press® Publishing Association.

My daughters, fifteen months apart in age, are as different as night and day. One is short, the other is tall; one is a private introvert, the other a gregarious extrovert; but there is one distinct trait they absolutely share, and that is their tone of voice. When they talk, they sound exactly alike.

For years, I could not tell them apart on the phone, which they loved to take advantage of at every opportunity. I learned to listen to the nuances, to the background noises, and to their story lines in order to recognize which daughter I was talking with. In the meantime, they joyfully took pains not to make it easy for me. Today they fool me less and less. Being able to distinguish their voices was a definite learning process for me.

Just as I learned over time to distinguish my daughter's voices on the phone, hearing and recognizing God's voice is a process that improves over time with practice. The more opportunities you take to listen, the easier His voice is to recognize.

Orange Cove Core Values: To Be a Mature Disciple...

- Refresh: Be "Refreshed" by the baptism of the Holy Spirit moment by moment. "For John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized by the Holy Spirit not many days from now." Acts 1:5. Jesus dwells in the hearts of His Children through His Spirit. By asking Him, after receiving forgiveness, the Holy Spirit comes and lives in us—His holy temples.
- Abide: Jesus said, "I am the Vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me, you can do nothing." John 15:5. It is through the Word that Christ abides in His followers. Spending time alone with God before the day starts in Bible study, prayer and meditation gives Divine power and strength through the Spirit to those who do it.
- Share: The example of the early Christian Church in Acts 2 demonstrates how God intended for believers to meet together in church (large groups) and homes (small groups). Meeting together & sharing, ingrains the truth of God's Word and the teachings of Jesus in the believers' lives.
- Give: God invites all His disciples to give of their time and their means to further His Kingdom. "Do not lay up for yourselves treasure on earth . . . lay up for yourselves treasure in heaven." Matt 6:19. Giving allows a disciple to participate in God's Holy Nature and neutralize the selfish tendencies within his or her sinful nature.
- Mentor: The great controversy between good and evil is fierce and complex. God ordained believers to encourage, support and care for one another in close, "family-like," relationships. Every disciple should be mentored by a more mature, experienced disciple and should, in turn, mentor a less experienced younger disciple than themselves. This process solidifies the experience of each disciple
