Devotional Thought: Search With All Your Heart

This devotional is brought to you by Pacific Press Publishing Association.

When you search for God "with all your heart", it is not some arbitrary obstacle meant to make your relationship with God more difficult. God has always been the first one to fully commit. This is how He relates to the human family: "But God demonstrates His own love for us in this: while we were still sinners, Christ died for us" (Romans 5:8); "This is love: not that we loved God, but that He loved us and sent His Son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins" (1 John 4:10). First. All. Then. Those who stir with Christian conviction first place their lives in the Savior's hands. Those who live a life marked by joy, victory, and promise leverage all that they are for a genuine walk with God. According to Scripture, then and only then do seekers find what they are searching for. As you think about your relationship with God today, are you committed to pursue God with all your heart and soul? FROM Conviction by Troy Fitzgerald, p. 8

Orange Cove Core Values: To Be a Mature Disciple...

- 1. Refresh: Be "Refreshed" by the baptism of the Holy Spirit moment by moment. "For John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized by the Holy Spirit not many days from now." Acts 1:5. Jesus dwells in the hearts of His Children through His Spirit. By asking Him, after receiving forgiveness, the Holy Spirit comes and lives in us—His holy temples.
- 2. Abide: Jesus said, "I am the Vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me, you can do nothing." John 15:5. It is through the Word that Christ abides in His followers. Spending time alone with God before the day starts in Bible study, prayer and meditation gives Divine power and strength through the Spirit to those who do it.
- 3. Share: The example of the early Christian Church in Acts 2 demonstrates how God intended for believers to meet together in church (large groups) and homes (small groups). Meeting together & sharing, ingrains the truth of God's Word and the teachings of Jesus in the believers' lives.
- 4. Give: God invites all His disciples to give of their time and their means to further His Kingdom. "Do not lay up for yourselves treasure on earth . . . lay up for yourselves treasure in heaven." Matt 6:19. Giving allows a disciple to participate in God's Holy Nature and neutralize the selfish tendencies within his or her sinful nature.
- 5. Mentor: The great controversy between good and evil is fierce and complex. God ordained believers to encourage, support and care for one another in close, "family-like," relationships. Every disciple should be mentored by a more mature, experienced disciple and should, in turn, mentor a less experienced younger disciple than themselves. This process solidifies the experience of each disciple.
