Our Father which art in heaven, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Lord' Prayer Maze

Find your way through the maze by connecting each phrase of the Lord's Prayer, then color Hallowed be thy name. Jesus at the end of the maze.

Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever.

Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

SERMON NOTES

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Think about how you have treated others, particularly those to whom you might even feel superior (most of us have those feelings at times, do we not?). How can you make it right? How can you display the humility needed to make it right?
2. Think about some of the simplest things in nature: the leaf of a tree, a drop of water, a seashell. How should the fact that even these things are full of mysteries keep us humble?
3. Dwell on the plan of salvation and what was required to save us. That is, we are so fallen, so corrupt, so evil, that mere regeneration would not be enough to redeem us from sin. No matter how much we are changed and restored, that regeneration and restoration cannot save us. We needed a substitute, someone who legally stands in our place and whose righteousness alone is enough to make us right with God. What should this reality itself tell us about why arrogance and pride have to be some of the worst sins in fallen beings like us?
