Health and Devotion

Eating Healthy For The Culinary Challenged

Is cooking a barrier to your healthy eating intentions? For those who don't like to cook or don't have the time it takes to prepare a meal, there are options. Here are a few unintimidating ways to get the nutrients your body needs:

The Crock Pot. This automatic cooking device lets you add food in the morning and dinner is ready for later. There are limitless combinations of vegetables and lean protein to make soups and stews.

Smoothies. Add your favorite fruits, choose a dairy such as low-fat milk or yogurt, water or juice and even some greens and blend.

Salads. Just a salad sounds boring, but when you think about the multitude of choices, from a variety of greens, sliced veggies, seeds, crumbly cheeses and lean proteins, you could make a new salad every night for weeks.

Ready made. If your grocery store has ready made cooked food, try the rotisserie chicken. Eat plain or shred and add to salads, make burritos, or other easy to assemble dishes.

A healthy meal at home doesn't have to dirty every pot and pan in the house.

Devotional Thought: He Knows My Name

This devotional is brought to you by Pacific Press® Publishing Association

Jesus knows us individually, and is touched with the feeling of our infirmities. He knows us all by name. He knows the very house in which we live, the name of each occupant.

Every soul is as fully known to Jesus as if he were the only one for whom the Saviour died. The distress of every one touches His heart. The cry for aid reaches His ear. He came to draw all men unto Himself. He bids them, "Follow Me," and His Spirit moves upon their hearts to draw them to come to Him. Many refuse to be drawn. Jesus knows who they are. He also knows who gladly hear His call, and are ready to come under His pastoral care.

Orange Cove Core Values: To Be a Mature Disciple...

- 1. Refresh: Be "Refreshed" by the baptism of the Holy Spirit moment by moment. "For John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized by the Holy Spirit not many days from now." Acts 1:5. Jesus dwells in the hearts of His Children through His Spirit. By asking Him, after receiving forgiveness, the Holy Spirit comes and lives in us—His holy temples.
- 2. Abide: Jesus said, "I am the Vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me, you can do nothing." John 15:5. It is through the Word that Christ abides in His followers. Spending time alone with God before the day starts in Bible study. orayer and meditation gives Divine power and strength through the Spirit to those who do it.
- 3. Share: The example of the early Christian Church in Acts 2 demonstrates how God intended for believers to meet together in church (large groups) and homes (small groups). Meeting together & sharing, ingrains the truth of God's Word and the teachings of Jesus in the believers' lives.
- 4. Give: God invites all His disciples to give of their time and their means to further His Kingdom. "Do not lay up for yourselves treasure on earth . . . lay up for yourselves treasure in heaven." Matt 6:19. Giving allows a disciple to participate in God's Holy Nature and neutralize the selfish tendencies within his or her sinful nature.
- 5. Mentor: The great controversy between good and evil is fierce and complex. God ordained believers to encourage, support and care for one another in close, "family-like," relationships. Every disciple should be mentored by a more mature, experienced disciple and should, in turn, mentor a less experienced younger disciple than themselves. This process solidifies the experience of each disciple.
