Health and Devotion

Heart Healthy Buddy

Do your relationships build you up or tear you down? Surround yourself with people who support your goals, and encourage your faith.

A well-being buddy can keep you focused, hard-working and accountable.

Who makes the best health buddy?

- ✓ You don't have to pick just one. The more support the better
- Spouse or partner: Getting healthy together can positively affect relationships.
- ✓ Friend or neighbor. Someone close to give that extra motivating push.
- ✓ Keep going: Celebrate small successes
- ✓ Believe you can do all things through Christ

Challenge Yourself: Doing good, makes you feel good. Perform one random act of kindness a day.

Vitality Tip: Resilience and the ability to adapt and thrive despite adversity develops through supportive relationships.

Devotional Thought: Called to Service

This devotional is brought to you by Pacific Press® Publishing Association

When Florence Nightingale heard the call to service, she chose to forsake the so-called luxuries of life and give her time to the sufferers of the Crimean War. Angels would gladly do the work that men and women have before them, but God has commissioned Christians to be co-laborers with Him in the great work of saving a lost world.

For several thousand years, this work has been heaven's most important business. So much in earnest is God that He gave His only Son to come to this world, to live and die for its accomplishment. And all through the centuries, He has kept large armies of angels to help men and women in this all-important work. Surely the chief business of Christians is to save souls. Someone has said, "The Christian that is not making other Christians is as much a contradiciton in terms as a fire that is not heating or a flame that gives no light.

Orange Cove Core Values: To Be a Mature Disciple...

- 1. Refresh: Be "Refreshed" by the baptism of the Holy Spirit moment by moment. "For John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized by the Holy Spirit not many days from now." Acts 1:5. Jesus dwells in the hearts of His Children through His Spirit. By asking Him, after receiving forgiveness, the Holy Spirit comes and lives in us—His holy temples.
- 2. Abide: Jesus said, "I am the Vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me, you can do nothing." John 15:5. It is through the Word that Christ abides in His followers. Spending time alone with God before the day starts in Bible study, prayer and meditation gives Divine power and strength through the Spirit to those who do it.
- 3. Share: The example of the early Christian Church in Acts 2 demonstrates how God intended for believers to meet together in church (large groups) and homes (small groups). Meeting together & sharing, ingrains the truth of God's Word and the teachings of Jesus in the believers' lives.
- 4. Give: God invites all His disciples to give of their time and their means to further His Kingdom. "Do not lay up for yourselves treasure on earth . . . lay up for yourselves treasure in heaven." Matt 6:19. Giving allows a disciple to participate in God's Holy Nature and neutralize the selfish tendencies within his or her sinful nature.
- 5. Mentor: The great controversy between good and evil is fierce and complex. God ordained believers to encourage, support and care for one another in close, "family-like," relationships. Every disciple should be mentored by a more mature, experienced disciple and should, in turn, mentor a less experienced younger disciple than themselves. This process solidifies the experience of each disciple.

Reflects the core values that Seventh-day Adventist are committed to:

- ⇒ The Open Bible: forms the base of the design and represents the Biblical foundation of our beliefs. It is portrayed in a fully opened position suggesting full acceptance of God's word as one reads, studies, and puts into practice.
- ⇒ The Cross: central to the Biblical message is the Cross which represents the gospel of salvation and is positioned in the center of the design to emphasize Christ's sacrifice, which is the central theme of our faith.
- ⇒ The Flame: the shape formed by three lines encircling an implied sphere. The lines represent the three angels of Revelation 14 circling the globe and our commission to take the gospel to the entire world. The overall shape forms a flame symbolic if the Holy Spirit, the messenger of Truth. The flame suggests a continued upward momentum symbolizing the resurrection and ascension to heaven at Christ's second coming, the ultimate focus of our faith.
