Devotional Thought: How to Overcome

This devotional is brought to you by Pacific Press® Publishing Association

A woman caught in the act of adultery was brought to Jesus. The Pharisees alleged that, according to the law, she should be stoned to death. Bending down, Jesus wrote their sins in the sand, and one by one, they left. Turning to the woman, "He said to her, 'Woman, where are those accusers of yours? Has no one condemned you?' She said, 'No one, Lord' " (John 8:10, 11). Then Jesus spoke these wonderful words, "Neither do I condemn you; go and sin no more" (John 8:11).

As long as we allow ourselves to be weighed down with guilt, we cannot overcome the wiles of the devil. However, when we repent of our sins and confess them to the Father in Jesus' name, He lifts our guilt from us and sets us free to be overcomers, and to walk in the Master's steps. Jesus paid the price for our sins, and in return, He gives us His righteousness. We accept this wonderful gift, through faith in Him.

Orange Cove Core Values: To Be a Mature Disciple...

- 1. Refresh: Be "Refreshed" by the baptism of the Holy Spirit moment by moment. "For John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized by the Holy Spirit not many days from now." Acts 1:5. Jesus dwells in the hearts of His Children through His Spirit. By asking Him, after receiving forgiveness, the Holy Spirit comes and lives in us—His holy temples.
- 2. Abide: Jesus said, "I am the Vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me, you can do nothing." John 15:5. It is through the Word that Christ abides in His followers. Spending time alone with God before the day starts in Bible study, prayer and meditation gives Divine power and strength through the Spirit to those who do it.
- 3. Share: The example of the early Christian Church in Acts 2 demonstrates how God intended for believers to meet together in church (large groups) and homes (small groups). Meeting together & sharing, ingrains the truth of God's Word and the teachings of Jesus in the believers' lives.
- 4. Give: God invites all His disciples to give of their time and their means to further His Kingdom. "Do not lay up for yourselves treasure on earth . . . lay up for yourselves treasure in heaven." Matt 6:19. Giving allows a disciple to participate in God's Holy Nature and neutralize the selfish tendencies within his or her sinful nature.
- 5. Mentor: The great controversy between good and evil is fierce and complex. God ordained believers to encourage, support and care for one another in close, "family-like," relationships. Every disciple should be mentored by a more mature, experienced disciple and should, in turn, mentor a less experienced younger disciple than themselves. This process solidifies the experience of each disciple.
